October 9, 2023 (Los Angeles, CA) – Today, Grammy-nominated singer-songwriter Zach Bryan adds new dates to The Quittin Time 2024 Tour, which kicks off in Chicago at the United Center on March 5. The announcement comes a matter of weeks after Bryan surprised fans with the release of his Boys Of Faith EP, which boasts features from Bon Iver and Noah Kahan. That was preceded by his self-titled, self-written and produced album which topped the Billboard 200 and simultaneously topped Billboard's Top Country, Rock & Alternative, Americana/Folk, and Rock Album charts. The most recent single from the album, “I Remember Everything (Feat. Kacey Musgraves),” also made history by topping the Billboard Hot 100, Hot Country Songs, Hot Rock Songs, and Hot Rock & Alternative Songs charts at once, being the first song ever to do so.

The 19 new dates for The Quittin Time 2024 Tour continue the singer-songwriter's trend of performing at major stadiums and arenas throughout the U.S. and Canada. Among the new stops are three nights at Los Angeles' Crypto.com Arena and stadium shows in Oakland, New Orleans, Detroit, Nashville, and Houston. See all new tour dates below, which include second stadium shows added in Atlanta, Denver, & Foxborough. Fans can register for presale access for the newly added shows HERE, with presale beginning October 18. General on-sale begins October 20.

Support acts for the The Quittin Time 2024 Tour will include Jason Isbell and the 400 Unit, Turnpike Troubadours, Sheryl Crow, The War And Treaty, Mt. Joy, Sierra Ferrell, The Middle East, Matt Maeson, Levi Turner, and SunDown47.
