

CMN Announces Christian Nodal U.S. Tour Titled “Foraji2 Tour 2023

The innovative creator of fusion genre "mariacheño" will visit cities across the country over three months. Exclusive presale for Amazon Music users begins May 10

Oakland, May 15, 2023 – Cardenas Marketing Network (CMN) today announced the new American tour of Christian Nodal, titled 'Foraji2 Tour 2023,' that will visit more than 30 cities across the country. Grammy Award-winning Nodal, known as the creator of 'mariacheño' that unites the musical genres of norteño and mariachi, will visit the country's largest and most important venues with a fresh and unique show that stays true to the essence that has rapidly made him one of the most successful stars in the world of Regional Mexican music.

“Being on stage and sharing my music with fans is where I feel the most myself. I can't wait to be with my fans to show them this new show that will have many surprises and of course, a lot of great music that celebrates Mexican culture in the way that it deserves,” said Christian Nodal, who has been preparing the new show for months.

The tour, consisting of 31 planned dates, begins on Friday, August 25 at the Honda Center in Anaheim, California, stops on Sunday, October 1 at Oakland Arena in Oakland, CA and ends on Sunday, November 12 at the Santander Arena in Reading, Pennsylvania. The show will visit states including Arizona, California, Florida, New York, Texas and more, over the course of three months.

“There is no denying the popularity and reach of regional Mexican music, which is why it has always been important to our company,” added Alex Cardenas, director of tours at CMN. "We are proud to once again produce Christian Nodal's new tour, given that as one of the greats of Latin music, he continues to break records and barriers."
